UPDATE

My contempt for corrupt, compromised politicians grows with each passing day. So many times, I find myself asking how it is possible that members of Congress can be in office for dozens of years and, when they retire, have a net worth of hundreds of millions of dollars. How did they get that money? Perhaps the answer to that question will also explain why they vote the way they do. Our country is being destroyed, and they could easily stop it, but they choose to do nothing. A child would have more common sense!

The Bible is very clear about what the future holds for these unscrupulous frauds. In this issue, I take you to the Bible and show you what God has to say about the current way the world is governed. Their days are numbered!

SOON IT WILL BE, "GAME OVER!"

FEATURE ARTICLE: "Game Over!"

WARNING: You are entering the "TRUTH ZONE". You may not like what you read. At times it may make you feel uncomfortable. That is not my goal. My goal is to speak truth that will provide spiritual guidance for you and your family in a time of great spiritual darkness.

You can be sure that what you read here will be TRUTH!

Most of us would agree that both our nation and our world are in serious trouble. Everywhere you look, there is hatred, death, and destruction. Recently, I read an article that said that over 300,000 Russian soldiers have died since the invasion of Ukraine. It made me wonder, did these men hate so deeply that they willingly put their lives on the line for a cause they believed in, or did someone else in a position of great power mercilessly order their sacrifice? I think we all know the answer to that question.

In all the wars ever fought, we find almost no record of kings or rulers putting their own lives or the lives of their sons at risk on the front lines of the battlefields. Yet, over 1.5 billion innocent men and women have died while following the orders of despots who only sought the expansion of their own power, might, and wealth.

Are not those in authority supposed to care about the well-being of those they rule over? Should not they devote themselves to the betterment of their subjects? Unfortunately, they must not think that way. They raise taxes but can only spew vacuous promises of help to the needy. They are corrupt beyond anything we can imagine, and without question, they are responsible for most of the pain and suffering we see in our world today.

If I sound upset and angry, it is because I am. In December, I spent two weeks in Maui, and what I saw shocked me. You all know about the tragic fire that destroyed Lahaina on the morning of August 8th. Fourteen days later, our illustrious president stood in the street of a town that had burned to the ground, talked about how he related to what those folks were going through because he too had gone through a similar experience, (Total lie!) and then said, "I signed the master — the major disaster declaration that mobilized the whole-of-government response, which means whatever you need, you're going to get." (Really?)

So, what is being done? They have built tall fences around most of the burned area, but there was one area where we could see up a hill beyond the fence, and what we saw looked totally untouched as it would have been the day after the fire. The only thing left standing was made of concrete. Every house and automobile lay completely burned. I went to the office of FEMA and was greeted by a closed door and a sign that read, "We are here to offer you emotional support."

What upset me most was that in West Maui, nearly every beach park has become a tent city where thousands of displaced persons are now living. People are saying that nothing is being done, and when they attend meetings and ask simple questions about when they can expect help, they are told to, "Just be patient." I can't help but wonder how long it would take for something to change if Joe Biden was forced to live in those conditions.

Well, something is going to change; Jesus is coming back, and when he does, it's going to be game over for the wicked rulers of this world.

Revelation 6:15-16

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

(Apparently, I'm not the only one who is upset.)

Revelation 11:15

15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

GAME OVER!

A MINUTE WITH MISS LINDA

“Perfect Peace”

We are living at a time when we hear more about “peace” than ever. There are bumper stickers, books, social media posts, and even jewelry that all speak about “peace.” In spite of this, peace has eluded this world and will continue to do so.

1 Thessalonians 5:3 Easy-to-Read Version

3 People will say, “We have peace and we are safe.” At that time destruction will come to them quickly, like the pains of a woman giving birth. And those people will not escape.

But does this mean that we cannot have inner peace? Jesus has promised us that in the midst of a world torn apart by hatred, strife, and chaos, we can have a peace that passes all understanding.

John 14:27 AMP

Peace I leave with you; My [perfect] peace I give to you....

Philippians 4:7 KJV

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

What concerns me is that even though Jesus and Paul said this, many Christians appear to have very little peace in their lives. Their posts on social media and what you see as you observe their lives, betray them and convince you that their lives are filled with chaos, turmoil, and worry. So, how can they find this wonderful inner peace Jesus talked about? I think it starts by understanding that in the Bible, peace is talked about in three different arenas. There is peace with God, peace with others, and peace with yourself (inner peace), and if you want inner peace, you must start by making peace with God and peace with your brothers and sisters.

Let's start by looking at peace with God because, as I have already said, this must come first. How can we have inner peace if, inside, we feel undone and separated from God? How is peace possible if we have no assurance of what eternity holds for us? If we want inner peace, we must start by humbling ourselves and accepting the Prince of Peace as our Lord and Savior.

The second step to finding inner peace is to live in peace with all men.

2 Corinthians 13:11 KJV

... Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

Romans 12:18 JUB

18 If it can be done, as much as is possible on your part, live in peace with all men.

“Perfect Peace”

Apparently, some have never seen how important this is. Their lives are filled with constant controversy that often results in broken relationships. How sad! It is okay to have opinions and voice them; however, when this results in anger and broken relationships, it steals inner peace, and long before that happens, it is time to step away from the computer and the cell phone.

The Bible also tells us that there is a time to step away from those who constantly cause strife.

Romans 16:17 WE

17 Brothers, I ask you to do this. Watch the people who make quarrels... Have nothing to do with those people.

This is very difficult and painful to do, but there are times it is necessary. My husband and I have only had to do this a few times, but every time, we knew we had no other choice, and time has proved our decisions to be right.

Even though you may have eliminated the things in your life that have been sources of turmoil, you may still struggle with a lack of peace if you have not learned one other important truth. You need to learn to cast your care upon the Lord. Recently I was shopping, and the clerk helping me seemed so uptight, so I asked her if she was ok, and she responded by saying that she felt uptight and on overload because of all she had to do. I felt led to share that when I feel that way, I cry out to the Lord for His help and then trust Him. She looked at me and said, “Maybe I need to do that.” I smiled and assured her that the Lord would help her.

I can't tell you how many times when I have felt uptight, hopeless, and distraught, and the Lord reminded me of my favorite scripture.

Isaiah 26:3-4 King James Version

3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusts in thee.

4 Trust in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength:

This was true no matter what it might have been that I was uptight about. Perhaps I was uptight about my relationship with the Lord, my husband, or a situation with a family member or someone else in the body of Christ; it didn't matter. If I wanted His “Perfect Peace,” I was going to have to trust Him. I needed to trust Him because, in the natural, there was nothing else I could do. This can be really difficult because it is human nature to want to fix everything, but I will let you in on a little secret...

God can do a much better job than either you or I.

Romans 15:13 NIV

13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

PROPHECY UPDATE

"What Will The Lie Be?"

Rev 9:20-21 KJV

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

Considering the context of these two verses, I view them as two of the most amazing verses in the Bible. First of all, at the time these verses are fulfilled, the rapture of the church will probably have already happened. Hundreds of millions of people will have suddenly vanished without explanation. Chapter 8 tells us fire will have burned 1/3 of all the trees and grass on Earth, and two asteroids will also have struck the planet. As a result, it appears Earth will have been plunged into winter, with only one-third of the sun's rays reaching the surface.

At the start of chapter 9, some sort of insect is loosed with a sting so painful that after being stung, men will seek death. Next, four angels will be sent with an assignment to kill 1/3 of the population of Earth. After all that, we finally arrive at verses 20-21 of chapter 9. My question is: How is it possible that after seeing all these prophecies fulfilled, the people of Earth will still refuse to acknowledge God and repent?

This seems bizarre and totally irrational. What will they possibly be thinking? I believe there may be a very plausible answer, but I must warn you, this will seem very far out, and that is why I am only presenting it as a possibility and not fact. We know that one of Satan's favorite tactics is to lie. He is the father of lies, and we can be certain that there will be a lie that causes men not to acknowledge God.

So what will the lie be?

"PLANET EARTH IS UNDER ALIEN ATTACK!"

I told you this would be far out, but before dismissing this article as total rubbish, please hear what I have to say. I find it very interesting how UFO sightings and the possibility of alien life have become major news. I can easily see how when the things I have just mentioned and the rapture of the church happen, it could be spun as a massive alien attack and abduction. Is this Sci-fi and total nonsense? Consider this: On September 21, 1987, in an address to the United Nations, President Ronald Reagan said this: "I occasionally think how quickly our differences worldwide would vanish if we were facing an alien threat from outside this world." I totally agree.

Whether you or I believe in aliens is not the issue. The issue is whether or not the threat of an alien invasion is the lie Satan will use to control mankind and keep them from acknowledging God and repenting. Based on what we are seeing in the news each day I can easily see this happening. People who are terrified can be made to believe or do just about anything.

So, what are we supposed to do? For right now I plan to keep a close eye on news stories about alien life. I personally believe that in the not-to-distant future, some government agency will declare that they have confirmed the existence of aliens. True or not, they will declare it. The groundwork for the lie will have been laid.

The second thing I plan to do is make sure I am ready for the return of Jesus. I do not plan to be here when God pours His wrath out on this planet.
